

CHIME LODGE

LAKES DISTRICT, ARGENTINA

CHIME LODGE

Patagonia's Legendary Waters

Edging the idyllic Chimehuín River, Chime Lodge is located in the heart of northern patagonia, making it a strategic hub for visiting anglers, from around the world, looking to explore the best of the best trout ivers in the region. In addition to floating and wade-fishing the Chimehuín River you'll also find incomparable trout fishing on the nearby Collón Curá, Malleo, and Aluminé Rivers, as well as on trophy lakes such as Huechulafquen, Paimún, Tromen, and Curruhé.

Off the water, relax in style at the lodge, whether reclining on the spralling deck, in the hot tub or in the cush living room and bar which overlooks the willow lined Chimehuín below, all while enjoying ultimate service, excellent cuisine, and a full selection of Argentina's renowned wines. Or take advantage of our two-night deluxe tent camp options for a true one-of-a-kind Patagonia experience.

WHY CHOOSE CHIME LODGE?

GETTING THERE

Chime Lodge is conveniently located on the banks of the upper Chimehuín River in Argentina's northern patagonia region, just a 35-minute' ride from the San Martín de los Andes (CPC) airport. Its closest small villa is Junín de los Andes and is located just a 20-minute drive from the lodge.

Chapelco Airport (CPC) in San Martín de los Andes is the closest airport serving Chime Lodge. Aerolineas Argentinas runs regular commercial flights from Aeroparque Airport in Buenos Aires (AEP) to Chapelco (CPC) Airport and back. The drive from CPC to Chime Lodge takes 45-minutes. Buenos Aires to the city of Bariloche (Code BRC) in Patagonia is another option, but the airport is located farther south and requires a longer drive (about 2.5 hours) to and from Chime Lodge. From either airport, you will be picked up and transferred by a Lodge representative to Chime Lodge.

THE FISHING

Overlooking the Chimehuín River, Chime Lodge boasts front-door access to the greatest diversity of trout water in northern Patagonia. Brown, rainbow, brook trout, and landlocked salmon all thrive here. You'll wade, float, and fish untouched beats by horseback or vehicle access, depending on your daily preferences.

The picturesque Chimehuín River is a wade and raft-friendly river that flows for 25 miles until it meets the Collón Curá River—another Patagonia fly-fishing mainstay. Also nearby, you'll find small, technical streams offering dry-fly, streamer, and nymphing opportunities depending on the season.

In addition to sprawling rivers and intimate small streams, this is also a land of lakes. Trophy still-waters include the Tromen, Huechulafquen, Epulafquen, Verde, and Curruhé—to name a few. Each has its own special nuances and all are known for sizable trout. In total, the area is home to more than 20 trout-rich lakes.

UNPLUGGED CAMPS

Our “Unplugged” camps are deluxe and include a high level of service and surprising amenities. Guests enjoy spacious eight-man tents outfitted with two comfortable beds, for our anglers in double occupancy (two guests per tent). This is not your ordinary camping setup as beds are furnished with fine cotton linen, warm comforters, and down pillows, allowing guests to spend a wonderful and cozy night under the stars.

Camps are fully catered and come with a professional chef to prepare both regional and gourmet meals – cooked over the riverside fire! Our state-of-the-art pressurized water system offers an endless supply of hot water for the private, enclosed shower. In addition, all camps come with two private bathroom facilities and a unique 12-volt lighting system for the tents, common areas, and trails making it easy to navigate the camp at any time in the night. The camp includes a fully stocked bar with ice, mixers, delicious wines and snacks to enjoy in nature or in the spacious walled tent for dining indoors if necessary.

The amenities for the anglers include fresh towels, bathrobes, soap, shampoo, and headlamps. Guests choosing PRG's Unplugged program do not need to pack anything extra or special for the trip.

Each morning, guests enjoy a healthy breakfast consisting of fresh fruits, cereals, and eggs made to order before grabbing their rods and making their first casts right from camp. PRG's assistants pack up and reassemble the camp in a new location approximately ten to twelve miles downstream.

Exceptional fishing is the norm with anglers commonly landing Browns and Rainbows over twenty inches. Everything is made ready for our anglers arrival at dusk including: an impressive table of appetizers and a full bar, hot showers and a crackling fire. Dinner is nothing short of amazing often followed by memorable stories and drinks around the fire. Camping is often the highlight of the entire trip, and for those who like to fish a few more hours or skip the "chit chat" at the lodges, the Unplugged program offers the perfect opportunity.
